1. On 27 December 1952, soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery, tank, motor transport and signal insignia were observed at the Trost Kaserne, Vienna. Officers were observed dining in a room on the first floor of the building opposite the Trost Kaserne. Jeep and truck, driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets, were parked in front of the building. Five groups of 4 EM each practiced emplacing of mortars of about 50-mm on the drill ground of the Trost Kaserne. Soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets did maintenance work on motor vehicles in the garage on Fernerstorfer Strasse.

On 30 December, no motor vehicle traffic was observed at the Albrechts Kaserne or the Wilhelms Kaserne. The installations were guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets with motor transport insignia. A newly constructed shed in the Wilhelms Kaserne housed tank trucks which were previously parked in the barracks yard of the installation. Maintenance work was done in the barracks yard on tank truck, repair shop, truck E, trailer and driving school truck.

2. On 29 December, about 25 EM practiced with 4 x 37-mm AA guns in the cantonment on the road to Bisamberg, Korneuburg (O 49/S 30). A group of 24 EM with red-bordered black epaulets commanded by a senior lieutenant wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia arrived from the direction of the Albrechts Kaserne and subsequently trained with another 4 x 37-mm AA guns which were hauled from a low wooden building with four gates. The fuel dump at the cantonment was dismantled. Pumps, fuel containers and other equipment were transported to the cantonment on the road to Leobendorf by trucks, all driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets. Three low wooden buildings used as troop barracks belonged to the cantonment. Officers observed at the installation included a lieutenant colonel with black-bordered red epaulets, a lieutenant colonel with red-bordered black epaulets, a captain, a senior lieutenant and a lieutenant, all wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. 2. ^{25X1A} Comment. It is noteworthy that the fuel dump in the cantonment on the road to Bisamberg was dismantled and transferred to the cantonment on the road to Leobendorf. The training with 37-mm AA guns observed in the cantonment on the road to Bisamberg indicates that artillery pieces of the 1336th AAA Regt are still parked in this installation. Except for some unidentified vehicles, [REDACTED] and Stockerau belong to the 23rd AAA Div.
